"Build a Future Where Quality Early Childhood Education is Accessible to All"

BKS is excited to have our enrichment programs return to our Centers this spring.

Move to the Country

BKS is working in partnership with the Kings County Tennis League to provide weekly tennis lessons (movement) to our students.

Strong relationships with our families and community partners.

High quality outcomes for all children

BKS is dedicated to ensuring all of our students have the opportunity to be the stewards of passion, dedication, inspiration and so much more. We partner with the Noel Pointer Foundation to provide weekly violin instruction.

The Sandy Hook Promise Foundation

For 130 years, BKS has worked to provide high quality early childhood education to communities in Central Brooklyn. Thank you for your ongoing support as we look forward to the 2021-2022 school year and the next five years. The pandemic curtailed our ability to provide enrichment programs to our students, but we are now able to bring them back.

Thanks so much for the very first time. Two objects from the BCM "Museum-on-the-Go for Pre-K". This month, three of our centers began participating in "Museum-on-the-Go For Pre-K." This opportunity allows our teachers to share museum experiences with their students. We partner with the Noel Pointer Foundation to provide violin instruction twice a week to our students. We are very grateful to our community partners.

A huge takeaway for me from our last virtual session and my recent visits to our centers is the importance of having learning experiences that are tangible and observable. The pandemic has forced us to necessarily be more intentional about how we create opportunities for learning and exploration. These are days for learning and goal setting in order to continue moving forward with our priorities:

1. Strong relationships with our families and community partners.
2. High quality outcomes for all children
3. Move to the Country
